CRIMSON RAIN

By TRIXSTER

The rain falls silently,

Washing away the

Hopes and dreams

That will never be,

Giving life for

The exchange of others.

But as traces of

The horror are

Lost among the current,

The pain of the souls

Embed themselves into

The hearts of

Burdened, old children,

Who release their

Own rain to heal,

But to no avail.

Pitter, patter

The crimson rain falls.

End
file.
